ANTI RAGGING COMMITTEE WORKS IN FOLLOWING SCHEME-

The institution ensures a day and night flying squad comprising of in campus faculty who regularly interact with the students (on and off campus living) to ensure normal functioning and to avoid any untoward activities pertaining to ragging. The anti-ragging committee periodically hold meetings quarterly per annum and frequency of these meetings are kept every week when new admission sessions begin. The institution strictly abides to the UGC regulations of anti- ragging and has a no tolerance policy towards any apparent discrepancy.

The institution holds quarterly women cell meetings but when a case is registered, emergency meetings are commenced to deal with the situation. The complain mechanism and committee members name and numbers are widely spread within the campus for female staffs as well students easy access. The confidentiality of the matter as well as the privacy and security of the plaintiff is ensured during entire course and the matter is reviewed very minutely from either party side by various committee members. The action taken is kept as judicious and transparent as possible.
